ABSTRACT

This CD-ROM audio guide contains a simulated conversation between a counselor at the Department of Education's Federal Student Aid Information Center and a student inquiring about financial assistance for college. The guide is designed to be useful to the visually impaired student. Following an introductory track providing contents information, each track contains a section answering questions about aspects of federal student aid. The sections are: (1) "Sources of Non-Federal Aid"; (2) "Federal Student Aid Programs"; (3) "Eligibility Requirements and Applications Procedures"; (4) "Student Aid Report and the Expected Family Contribution"; (5) "Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grants, and Federal Work Study"; (6) "Federal Perkins Loans"; (7) "Federal Loans for Students"; (8) "Federal Loans for Parents"; (9) "Consolidation Loans"; and (10) "Where To Go from Here."
